Candidates Nite in Billerica next Thursday

The League of Women Voters is sponsoring a State Candidates Night in Billerica, next Thursday, Sept. 10. WGBH TV, Channel 2, will telecast live coverage of the 'Know Your State Candidates'. The event enables the candidates of both parties, running for Senator, Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Representative in the 5th Congressional District, and Secretary of State to present themselves and their views. The public is cordially invited.

Each candidate is to be given four minutes to present his message to the public. The audience will be permitted to submit written questions which are to be answered by the candidates.

Since there is not enough time for the 68 other candidates in the greater Lowell area to speak, each has been requested to complete a written questionnaire regarding various important issues.

The nine participating area leagues of Bedford, Billerica, Burlington, Carlisle, Chelmsford, Lowell, Tewksbury, Wilmington and Woburn will make completed questionnaires available to the voters that evening and the week preceding the primaries.

After the question and answer period, a reception is to be held where the public will have an opportunity to meet the speakers personally.

Ladies of the LWV: Preparing for the Billerica Candidates Nite. L to R: April Merrill and Sandy Adams of Tewksbury, and Betty Spahl of Woburn Street, Wilmington.

89 Present to discuss new schools

89 Persons, including the janitor and two Selectmen, were in the audience in the West Intermediate School, last night, to hear the school committee discuss the future school building program of Wilmington. The School Committee had been hoping for an audience of several hundred.

From the viewpoint of administration, and unpopular as it may be, Walter Pierce, Superintendent of Schools said last night, 'the construction of a new High School is the plan that should be taken.'

Mr. Pierce was the last of nearly one dozen speakers to express a viewpoint, and he was summing up from a professional one.

There were a total of 89 persons present to hear the discussion, in the West Intermediate School. Chairs had been set up for 500.

The meeting was being held to inform the town of exactly what was needed for classroom space for the future. It was also to give the townspeople an opportunity to attend the next special town meeting, with some background information.

The chairman of the School Committee, John Brooks, opened the discussion with a statement that there is a crisis situation for the lack of real accommodations and space for the students. He stated that, while the committee was not unanimous in its vote to build a new High School, it was unanimous in the feelings that the school buildings as of now are not adequate for the education of the children of Wilmington.

Walter Pierce, Superintendent of Schools, using an overhead projector, showed the projected figures on enrollment up to the years 1984. The figures, he said, were a composite of many sources.

The enrollment figure for this year is 5,042. After the Kindergartens have been in effect for four years, in 1978, the projected total enrollment is 5,795.

Beyond 1978 the projected figures which Pierce used were only for the High School.

The present high school enrollment is 1280. The projected enrollment for 1984 is 1539.

To project that far in the future is 'dangerous' Pierce said.

In the elementary schools today are presently 112 classrooms. The needs for 1978 will be 121 classrooms.

With the phasing out of the Swain, Walker, and Whitefield Schools there will be a loss of 16 classrooms. The total need for new classrooms thus becomes 30.

In the Intermediate Schools, the present number of classrooms is 37. The future figure in the enrollment will be 45. Thus there is a need for 8 additional classrooms in the intermediate schools.

Committed

The School Committee, by a vote early in the year, is committed to the building of a new High School. They did not show those attending the program last night any alternate program.

Simply put, without including many of the various figures given by the School Committee, the projected cost of a new high school is $13,500,000.

The projected cost for alternate plans, with addition to the high school and additions to other schools is $12,315,550.

There are many figures which do not show up in summaries, because of the differences in educational standards and approaches.

Several members of the School Committee explained their feelings on the subject.

Mr. Lanni, for instance, was for the building of a new High School, and converting the present High School into a Junior High. He told his audience that this would be the most economical way, in the long run.

It was Lanni's proposals, last spring, which led the School Committee to reverse itself, abandoning the original plans of additions to present schools.

John Brooks said that a new high school would mean new roads. He felt that the cost of housing high school students was 100% more than elementary students. Also, he was in favor of retaining the historical plans for a central High School.

Mrs. Barbara Hooper said that the present buildings were not built with a core large enough to be added to. In some of the buildings the gym and cafeteria were not adequate, and would have to be added to.

Many of the questions from the audience concerned the figures by Mr. Pierce. Most of the concern seemed to be in the area of price. Al. Lanni gave figures which showed that a new school would be approximately $5 on the tax rate. But, he said, the figures could not show all the variables. He felt the final price would be close to his figure.

Someone said that the School Committee should approach the special town meeting in October with both sets of plans. The idea was discussed a short while, with the school committee stating that another special town meeting could be called on the alternate building plans.

A member of the audience stated that much work is needed to educate the townspeople of what both programs mean. She said that the highest consideration of the townspeople would be the cost factor, with little consideration for the educational needs of the students.

It was at that point that Mr. Pierce was asked for his views, as administrator.

From Town Finances to High School Physics

Mrs. Jean Pedersen (Second from right) of Federal Street is the Vice Chairman of the Wilmington Finance Committee. Now, in company with others in the photo, she has accepted a teaching position in the Wilmington Schools. Mrs. Pedersen will teach Physics, in the High School. Last year she taught the same subject at Merrimac College, and before that she was employed at Avco. She will have to resign, of course, from the Wilmington Finance Committee.

George Hesse, Glen Road School Principal

Jerry Houghton, Business Manager of the Schools, George Hesse, and Derek Little, Assistant Superintendent of Schools.

GEORGE HESSE TO BE GLEN ROAD SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

The Glen Road School principalship which has been on the agenda for several months, since the School Committee re-posted the position, was decided last week by the committee at their regular meeting at the Roman House. Most of the meeting was held in executive session, to discuss the applicants for the position.

Named to the post was George Hesse of Plymouth.

Mr. Hesse comes to the Wilmington School System after serving as the Principal of an elementary school in Plymouth, and most recently as the Vice-Principal of an Intermediate school there.

He received his B.S.Ed. from the Salem State College, and his M.S. Ed. from Bridgewater. He also holds nine credits above his Master's degree.

Other professional positions held by Mr. Hesse have been Director of the Head Start Program for three summers in Plymouth, and a teacher of adult programs at Plimouth Plantation for several years.

Other Business

The School Committee appointed Anthony DeLuca, Principal of the North Intermediate School to be the Administrator of the Work Study program for the Wilmington schools.

His new position is effective on Sept. 1st., which leaves a vacancy of Principal of the North Intermediate.

Four teachers were added to the staff of the school system. Barbara Gagel, Lake Ronkonkoma, N.Y., with a B.S. from Mass College of Art, to teach elementary art; Marjorie Lamkin of Wilmington, a B.S. graduate of Simmons College, for grades 7 and 8 Home Economics; Catherine Nesterak of Rahway, N.J., with a BA from Douglas College to teach in the upper elementary grades; and Judith Oberholtzer, of Lincoln, Illinois with a Master of Music from Illinois Wesleyan University, to teach grades 7 and 8 music.

Nosey Nancy

Send your announcements to Nancy, Box 208, Wilmington, or call 657-7141, and after five, 658-4865. If I'm not there I'll call you.

Hi, All You Good People...and what about this Beautiful Weather...Great and this Gal did note that you paid attention to the 'Trash Lady' as her new nickname is in the Square and are cleaning up and picking and bending...That's great, Keep up the good work!

Jo O'Neil called this Gal from the Fred F Cain Headquarters and asked her to let you folks know that she and Charlie Bowman and the old Committee are hard at work planning that Horribles Parade for the Halloween do and want it bigger and better with Floats and everything... So get with the planning yourselves and we'll give you more on that later.

Hear that one Chick from this Town was blithely sauntering into a bank in Reading Square on Monday and the wind swooped her wig off onto the sidewalk...So with her usual finesse, this young grandmother bent over picked up her hair and placed it on her head again...and continued business as usual...much to the amazement of the spectators.

Hey, there Doll...this Chick is certainly glad that you decided to not 'Sweat the Small Stuff', cause then the Storm will wane...the Weather will be gorgeous...and we are just waiting to see that big grin shine down from the Blue and White Chariot this week...and this Gal will arrange that half-an-hour any time with pleasure!

Now, Men...this Chick's evening schedule this week looks like she forgot that she had to work...There are 2 or 3 events or meetings each nite, so if you see a zombie on the street in the beginning of the week who looks vaguely familiar, stop and open her eyes for her... Will 'yuh?...Thanks...She knew you would.

From Lew Gardiner, that former Cracker Jack English Teacher at THE High School...now of Scholastic Publications in New York...I am very happy working here, and the various good things about the job easily compensate for the various bad things about living in New York... The people here are awfully pleasant to be with, and they're not afraid of the truth...I hope you're doing well in all your civic and business capacities and I trust Sharon is well...Please tell her hello for me...and wish her luck...you were coming to New York in the fall...be sure to get in touch with me...I'll take you to lunch at an Indian Restaurant where the food is hot enough to burn out anyone's New England sinuses...Lewis...

(Thanks, Lew for the letter and we certainly are glad that you are happy in that Stall...and you better believe that we'll get in touch with you if we do come to New York... although it looks right now as though No. 2 daughter will be making that trip, cause she thinks she would like to go into publishing...and I can't think of a better operation for her to view than that Scholastic one!)

Then Dorothy Park ecrivez to this Chick one of her invaluable letters this week with many wise and kindly words...but among them she tells us that Pauline, who worked at Charles River Breeding Lab had to go to Arizona for her arthritis and she is now in the hospital for surgery...the Baptist Hospital at 625 North 20th Avenue, Phoenix Arizona, Room 111, and would like to hear from her friends in Wilmington...Cards to Pauline Park, there Gals.

That Dr Gerry Davis dropped in this week, and during the course of the conversation, we found out that he has been appointed to be an instructor in Clinical Optometry for 3rd and 4th Grade Students... at the Mass College of Optometry... In other words, he'll be teaching those fellas how to examine eyes... He was thrilled, and so were we for him...Congratulations, Gerry, and lots of luck with that enterprise...We knew you'd make it!

Don Garland wrote this Gal a note and told us that he has been appointed Youth Coordinator for Governor Sargent and Donald Dwight for the Town...He wants all of you young people who would like to help to call him at 658-3915...or get in touch with him at 2 Muse Avenue in Wilmington...Here ya go again Kids...Put the work where it's at... Don't forget...18 year old vote coming up and you have to learn what it is all about!

FROM THE BOYS: Paul MacMelville a Staff Sergeant with the Air Force is on duty at Phu Cat AB in Vietnam...Master Sergeant Elton W O'Dell graduated with honors from Noncom School at Kirtland AFB in New Mexico and received the Award for outstanding noncom qualities.

He is assigned to Aeronautical Sys Division for research and development...Petty Officer James Webster is at his home base in Patuxent River, Md after five months in Bermuda.

And very kind words from Pam Pemberton...

'Dear Nosey Nancy
...I'm writing you this little note to thank you for your column...It's the first thing I turn to when the TC arrives here...My husband and I are stationed in Kais eislaurn, Germany, and reading your column just seems to bring home a little closer...The TC is just as important to me as the letters from family and friends.

I would like to know that you receive this, but would appreciate you keeping it as a personal thank-you to you. It's awfully good to know that there's still people like you around...Very sincerely yours, Pamela (Pearson) Pemberton'

Well, Pam, sorry to have to do something against your direction... but I'll tell you that this Chick felt so good at your kind words that she couldn't resist boasting a bit and sharing your glow around... May I say this...that it's people like you that makes this Gal's life worthwhile...cause on account of it's only through people like you that she knows she's doing her share in making sunshine...which is one of her main objects in life and she'll tell you this...she bleeps and bleeps and gets bawled out plenty of times...but when folk like you take the time to drop this Gal a line, she really feels puffed up with happiness that she's doing her thing...and someone else likes that thing...So my thanks goes to you...Let us know what you are doing and what life is like over there!

Joe Marasco, the son of Mr and Mrs Romolo Marasco of 42 Columbia St was named to the Dean's List at University of Bridgeport in Connecticut last term...Congratulations, there Joe!

A Little League Dance is scheduled for Oct 3, and this will offset expenses not otherwise covered for the LL...but there are 1000 people involved and the K of C Hall is limited to a capacity of 300...So for reservations at $3.50 per person, contact your boy's manager.

Well, hold on there Mommas and Poppas...Only a few more days and then you can send the little loving monsters back to those ever-loving teachers...and if you feel like this Chick, you'll certainly be glad to see them back in their stalls...so you can start with the regular breathing once again...

Meanwhile...Love ya!

On Chansky Job

Cain Claims Wasted $$$$

By BILL CAHILL

BEVERLY - Wilmington State Rep. Fred F. Cain (D) said yesterday he has filed a bill to specifically abolish the Beverly warrant officer's job because "Beverly's the only place where they are making hay out of this thing."

He said the warrant officer cost Essex County taxpayers $14,000 in 1966 for work done free by the courts everywhere else in the state.

His legislation would eliminate the part-time position of Beverly warrant officer, held since 1964 by Beverly Atty. George H. Chansky, also a Democrat.

The measure, has passed both branches and now awaits Gov. Volpe's signature.

"The taxpayers of Essex County just can't afford to pay the $14,000 they paid last year for Chansky and that fellow in Danvers. Why don't they handle complaints and summonses like they do everywhere else in the state? They can get them at the courts, and it won't cost the taxpayers a nickel," Cain said.

The Wilmington Democrat said he first learned of the fee payments to Chansky and Danvers warrant officer William R. Spears while sitting as a member of the legislative committee on counties.

Costs 'Skyrocket'

"This thing originally started out at about $2,100 to $2,400 a year and now it's skyrocketed almost out of sight," said Cain.

"I've checked the county budget figures, so I know what I'm talking about. Last year, Chansky was paid $10,000 by the county. It looks like all the cops in Danvers and Beverly are going to them for their warrants and are going over to court and testify. It looks like a real grab at the taxpayers expense," said Cain.

"We've got the same court situation you have right up here in Wilmington and every place else in Middlesex County. Our cops go five miles to Woburn every day to get complaints and over in North Reading, they go even further. But what happens in Essex County only happens in two other counties. Every other county in the state does it like Middlesex County and it doesn't cost the taxpayers a nickel," Cain continued.

He said that in 1964, when the fees exceeded the Essex County budget appropriation by about $300, "I carried the bill to allow the county to make up the payment. But then the next year, the fees came in even higher," said Cain. "Why on the one day, he made more making out complaints than the judge did who heard the cases. Why should the taxpayers pay $14,000 when the same thing can be done for nothing if the cops will take a five minute ride over to Salem? Look at Western Massachusetts. They have more than a five-minute ride and they go to the courts for their complaints and summonses, said Cain.

From The Sun's

State House Bureau

STATE HOUSE - A bill filed by Rep. Fred F. Cain, (D) Wilmington, which bans justices of the peace from receiving complaints and issuing warrants and summonses, has been signed into law by Gov. John A. Volpe.

Rep. Cain's bill provides for appointment of justices of the peace with the power to take bail in district court criminal cases, but takes away their present power to issue summonses.

A Public Service Report From Representative Fred F. Cain

Justices Of The Peace No Longer Able To Issue Warrants

The bill was proposed by state Rep. Fred Cain, D-Wilmington, ton, who served on the Committee on Counties. Cain said that the new law will save the public money because warrant officers will no longer receive their fees of $3 per complaint and $2 per warrant.

It was discovered that a Beverly warrant officer received $16,000 in fees last year. "Flagrant violations like this made it necessary to abolish the system," Rep. Cain said.

Four counties are affected by the bill. The other counties, that use warrant officers are Berkshire, Barnstable and Essex.

Rep. Cain was asked who will take over the work load. He answered that a town's prosecuting officer could pick up the warrants when he was at the court.

This would be possible because no law requires a police officer to obtain a warrant at the time of the arrest.

"We want to keep county government and in order to do this we must modernize it by cutting down costs," Rep. Cain said.

Hi Gals:

I've got another fabulous BESTLINE Product to tell you about. ZIF is perhaps the greatest ALL PURPOSE CLEANER to come our way since we discovered water.

ZIF not only will save you money, girls, but lots of work time as well. ZIF will replace several household cleaners you are now using at a very significant cash savings to you. For instance: One Quart of ZIF makes 2½ gallons of ALL PURPOSE CLEANER.

For example: ZIF will eliminate the need for such products as Lestoil, Janitor in Drum, Formula 409, Fantastic, Mr. Clean, Oven Guard, Easy Off and Jif-Foam.

Perhaps the most important thing to remember is that ZIF as well as all BESTLINE Products are completely safe around children. BESTLINE does not use poisonous, or toxic agents in any of their cleaning materials, plus, is non-flammable. With BESTLINE, Top Quality as well as Safety go hand in hand.

Dear Larz:
Recently the School Committee appointed a few teachers from the school system as Assistant Principals to the various schools. A gentleman from Plymouth was appointed Principal to the Glen Road School. Also, a Mr. Derek Little was appointed Assistant Superintendent of Schools. Does this mean that there were no qualified personnel in our school system available for these positions?

Is it possible to set up some kind of system for prospective principals. Then when the necessity arises for a change in positions, we would have candidates available right in our own school system.

A Mr. Jerry Houghton has been named Business Manager. In a town so small where the taxpayers money should be taken into consideration where does the School Committee get the authority to make all of these appointments? I do believe the School Committee is voted in to help the town. Their position should be to keep the school expenses within reason. With this in mind, is it necessary to create new positions in Wilmington.

I was happy to hear that Mr. Tony DeLuca was promoted to a better position. This leaves an opening for a principal at the North Intermediate School. Would this be the position they have been saving for an ex-school committeeman?

Sincerely,
Mike Walsh

Dear Larz:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the lovely article you printed on my clothing sale of Aug. 14. This was to benefit a southern family I was helping out.

I am happy to say it was a success, with the sum of $72.90 realized. This included a surprise donation from a concerned lady in Billerica. Also I received a nice letter and a donation from another lady, also of Billerica.

Some folks sure are wonderful, aren't they? Thank you again.

Sincerely
Mrs. Barbara Carey

NATURES WAYS

by Wayne Hanley

The mockingbird now sings at night in Massachusetts. This summer seems to be the first in which night singing in the commonwealth has been common. James Baird of the Massachusetts Audubon Society has received 15 to 20 reports each week in late July from persons who had heard mockingbirds singing in the middle of the night.

There have been quite a few mockingbirds in Massachusetts since the early 1960s, Baird said. 'I don't know why they have not sung at night commonly much earlier. As many people know, the mockingbird is famed for its night solos in the South where it is common bird.'

Baird suspects that the recent buildup in mockingbird populations in southern New England may have something to do with night singing. For the last couple of years Christmas bird counters have reported somewhere around 90 mockingbirds wintering on Cape Cod. In addition, mockingbirds in Concord, N. H. in June of 1965. At the time, mockingbirds were a rarity in New Hampshire. A couple weeks ago I saw a pair of mockingbirds in the Newington, N. H., cemetery off Great Bay. From their actions, it seemed apparent they had a nest nearby.

Perhaps all this activity among mockingbirds in New England would have passed unnoticed were it not for Howard N. Fowler, managing editor of The Mansfield News. Fowler recently dropped me a note that mockingbirds were tuning up at 2 A.M. in the town and raising considerable interest among residents. As Fowler noted, the average New Englander refuses to believe that mockingbirds exist north of the Mason-Dixon Line.

The truth seems to be that mockingbirds in New England that crashed in the cold winter of 1919-1920. Later Ludlow Grimson reported an increasing population that was depressed by the bitter winter of 1947-1948. Unlike sparrows and other common wintering birds, mockingbirds do not eat grain. They survive the winter on wild berries and fruit—many would starve except for the peanut butter that birders put out for birds.

While it is fairly easy to understand why New Englanders would be skeptical about mockingbirds living in the region, Fowler's comment that many persons have inquired about the presence of mourning doves in his area opens the question of why so many Mourning Doves regularly breed in most sections of New England. Many even winter as far north as southern New Hampshire and Maine. Yet Fowler's comments are true, for all major conservation organizations in New England receive frequent calls from residents who consider mourning doves unusual.

The Lines go This Way, says Jimmy Quinn, and Mrs. James Cain knows he is able to see well at a distance of twenty feet.

A week from now there will be about 500 or slightly more first graders in the Wilmington Schools. How many of them will have unknown eye defects?

Based on the statistics of last Saturday's Eye Clinic, run by the Wilmington Lions Club, there should be about 20 or more youngsters who need eye treatment, and their parents do not know it!

The Wilmington Lions Club gave out 501 applications to the clinic, personally. They followed up this with a follow up letter.

245 of the applications were returned to the Lions Club, signed by parents who were willing to take their young child to the clinic, last Saturday.

Of the 245, 175 were actual 'show' persons, people who brought their youngsters for an eye examination.

And, of those 175 youngsters, 14 were found to have eye defects!

Dr. Gerald Davis of Wilmington and Dr. Simon Bagdikian of Billerica were in charge of the Lion teams.

Micki Cavanaugh has good color perception. She is having her eyes tested for color blindness by Eric Sturgis.

Don Dwight, Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor, with Mrs. Ruth Kitchener, in the Town Crier office.

In one sense Donald R. Dwight has it made. He is certain to be nominated for the post of Lieutenant Governor of Massachusetts, in the Republican primaries in September, for he has been already chosen for that post by Governor Francis Sargent.

Of course the two men will then have a battle in November with whomever the Democratic nominees turn out to be.

Don was a visitor to the Town Crier office last week, with Mrs. Ruth Kitchener, Republican Chairlady. He just happens to be an old acquaintance of the publisher of the Town Crier, having met in newspaper conventions. For Don, after he finished his stint of duty with the United States Marines, started off as a 'cub' reporter with the Holyoke Transcript. In a few years he was Assistant to the publisher.

Then, there was some trouble about the highways in Massachusetts - remember? Two bright young men were named to be Associate Commissioners of the Department of Public Works Francis Sargent and Donald Dwight. Among the Governors who so named them was Foster Furcolo. The boys had a reputation for getting jobs done.

Don stayed at that job for three years, and then went back to newspaper publishing.

Francis Sargent stayed on, and became, eventually, Governor of Massachusetts. And he called him old (in one sense) teammate back into the state government, to be Commissioner of Administration, in the state government.

Now, of course, he is the governor's choice for Lieutenant Governor.

Still on the sunny side of forty, Don Dwight is one of the more articulate gentlemen who are aspiring for state office.

And if Francis Sargent is elected the Governor of Massachusetts (and that's the way the polls seem to indicate) Massachusetts will have a good Lieutenant Governor in Don Dwight, ex Marine, ex Newspaper Man.

Too bad the Smiths are paying all that money in heating bills.

They could be salting 70% of it away for next summer's vacation.

How come? Gas gives you a better deal.

It's a shame the Smiths have to choose between a warm house and a cool vacation. Somebody should have told them that in their area electric heat costs two and a half times as much as gas. Don't wait for somebody to tell you. Check into gas heat. (Then call your travel agent.)

Winchester Hospital, and will include lectures by an Obstetrician and a Pediatrician. Classes will include a description of the anatomy and physiology of birth; care of mother before, during and after labor; and care and development of the new baby. Also included in the course will be a guided tour of selected areas of the hospital, including the admitting office, maternity floor, and labor and nursery areas. During the tour there will be an opportunity to informally meet with some of the nursing personnel in these areas, and to have individual questions answered.

Classes will be open without charge to all interested expectant parents, with pre-registration required. Those desiring to register should call the hospital, 729-1900, Extension 216, week-days between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m.

BEST BLOOD IS VOLUNTEERED

The Massachusetts Red Cross Blood Program will not accept blood from 'professional' donors, and has had its caution justified by recent medical findings.

A team of doctors found that 51 per cent of a sample of 82 patients undergoing open heart surgery developed hepatitis from blood supplied by commercial blood banks. A smaller control group of 28 patients using volunteer blood developed no hepatitis reactions.

The team reported their findings in the AMA Journal of January, 1970.

Dr. J. Garrett Allen of the Stanford University School of Medicine, an internationally known expert on blood research, says that 90 per cent of hepatitis from blood transfusions can be traced to the use of commercial blood. He adds that donors who are forced to sell blood are more likely to have the disease than those who give in voluntarily.

The Massachusetts Red Cross Blood Program accepts only donated blood. You can help cut down the risk of hepatitis infection in patients by eliminating the necessity for commercial blood banks.

SWIMMING POOL CARE

by

Bob Le Favour

Before covering your pool for winter be sure to place either a large inflatable pillow (John Wayne's headrest as we call them) or several inflated inner tubes in the center of your pool. (No logs as they are apt to tear your covering as the ice heaves them up).

The cushion is for the purpose of holding up your cover in the center so that snow and ice does not form and sag or cut your pool cover. It is not, as many believe, to relieve the pressure of the ice in the pool.

Be certain also to drain all the water from your filter and piping as expanding ice will burst even the strongest steel filter housing and this is a mighty expensive lesson.

I hope this has been a memorable summer for you and I look forward to seeing many of my shorts and T shirt customers in ski pants and parkas before long.

I have enjoyed your readership of this column and hope that I have contributed to your summer pool pleasure. Naturally, I would welcome your comments.

Bob Le Favour is the owner and operator of Le Favour's Sea-craft Sport Shop, in Wilmington, and Le Favour's Sport Shop, in Haverhill. For a number of years he has been associated with the swimming pool industry.

Mr. Le Favour operates the Enchanted Mountain Ski Resort in Jackman, Maine, and for the past several years has served as an advisor to the National Sporting Goods Association.

If there are any questions in this column, please call him at 657-7521, or visit his swimming pool headquarters on Route 38 in Wilmington.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

The Wilmington High School Football Squad took off, Sunday afternoon, for a training camp in New Hampshire. The boys are shown hold signs of the various sponsors who are making the trip possible.

Town League All Stars

The Division all-star teams for this past season were announced on Monday evening by league Commissioner, Jay Tighe. The fast pitch team includes: Butch McFeeters, pitcher, Dick Either, catcher and first baseman Joe Beaton, all from DeLoury Construction; shortstop Lynn Billings and Bob McNabb an outfielder representing Bemis Mobile; third baseman Dave Newhouse of Newhouse Construction and Bob Flores, an outfielder from Bedell Insurance.

The K of C and NAPA each placed four men on the semi-fast pitch squad. Representing the Knights are: Dick Elliott, pitcher, George Pratt, catcher, John Smalley, outfield and Don White an infielder. Infielders Bill Rugg and Bill Dunleavy along with outfielders Paul McElhaney and Ed Norton were selected from the NAPA team. The remaining members of the squad are: Roger Smith, an outfielder from Smithcraft and infielders Ken Sachione, Sons of Italy and Nino Trimarchi, Rocco's.

The MVP awards in each division, as selected by the coaches, were Lynn Billings in Division I and George Pratt in Division II.

Tomorrow evening at Town Park the two all-star squads will play a double-header against each other. The twin-bill will get under way at 6:30 p.m. with a fast-pitch game. A semi-fast pitch game will be played at 8:15 p.m.

In the much delayed playoff game involving K of C and Smithcraft to decide the Div. II regular season crown, the Knights were victorious Monday night to the tune of 8-6. George Pratt slammed a grand slam homer and Don White and Jim Hachey chipped in with a round-tripper each to pace the winners.

Flag Football

Recreation Director Ken Zucker announced on Monday evening that four teams will make up the Flag Football League this fall. Sweetheart Plastics, Miceli Club, Plaza Merchants and Charles River Lab will be the four clubs participating in the league.

Twin-bills will be played every Tuesday and Thursday evenings at Town Park with the first game listed for 7:00 p.m. each night. The regular season of play will commence on Tuesday Sept. 15th. A pre-season jamboree is listed for next Thursday night, Sept. 10th. Sweetheart will play Charles River in the lid lifter at 7 p.m. and the Merchants square off against Miceli in the nite cap.

Mr. Zucker will serve as League Director this season. Bill Gracie is the head official and Sonny Parker is the official scorer.

GASOLINE STOLEN

Sometime during the past weekend thieves sawed through the lock on the Highway Department gasoline pump, and stole a tankful of gas.

The theft was discovered on Monday morning. The thieves had replaced the lock on the pump, and left it to look as though nothing had happened.

A leak in a roof can be located by examination of the under side during a rain.

The point where water drips may not be at the leak, for water will often run for long distances along rafters and other parts before falling; the path of the water should be traced back to the leak.

When the leak is found, a wire or thin sliver of wood should be run through it to locate it from the outside.

To locate a leak in dry weather, the garden hose can be played on the approximate location in such a manner that the water will strike the bottom edges of the shingles. An examination of the inside should follow.

Students will Not Drive to Shawsheen Voke

All students to the new Shawsheen Valley Technical High School are expected to use the school bus system, except those students who live within walking distance to the new school.

Benjamin Wolk, Superintendent - Director, has said that no student will be permitted to drive to school without his special permission.

Dress code for the students is to be determined by what is accepted as good taste in the offices of the various industries and business establishments where the students eventually work, according to Wolk.

Dungarees, leather boots or sneakers may not be worn to the school. Female students may not wear slacks, shorts, or sandals to class.

Male students will be required to wear shirts, tucked in, with or without ties. The clothes the students will wear to school will not necessarily be the clothes they will wear in the shop or lab area. Most shops, with the exception of Secretarial Science, Chem Lab, Drafting, and Technical Illustrating, will require shop clothes. Information on such clothing will be available to students within the first few weeks of school.

Because safety is of prime importance, male students will not be permitted to have long hair. This is because of the abundance of rotating equipment in the school's shop areas.

The school cafeteria will not be in operation during the first few weeks of the school. A milk break will be permitted, each day. Cookies or snacks will be available, and the cost of the milk will be 4¢ a carton.

A full time registered nurse will be available in the school at all times.

The school sessions will be from 7:55 am to 2:45 pm. However, since some areas of the school are not yet completed, an abbreviated schedule is to be in effect for a short time. Until further notice, the school will be dismissed at 12:30 each day.

Accidents are always with us, yet how many people know how to react correctly in an emergency?

Shock, for example, is a very common result of an automobile, or other type of accident. The symptoms of shock are rapid breathing, pallid, cold skin, weak pulse, confused actions.

Anyone acting in a confused, irrational manner after an accident may be suffering from mild shock.

What to do? Lay the sufferer flat with feet raised, and keep him warm, but not overheated. If he is conscious, give him warm drinks. Keep watch over persons in mild shock, as they may wander away from the scene of the accident if left unattended.

The Wilmington Crusaders commenced the Drum Corps Week with third place in the Mayflower Championships in Danvers on Sunday afternoon.

Governor Francis Sargent made an official proclamation that the week of August 30 to Sept 5 is Massachusetts Drum Corps Week.

At the Mayflower Finals on Sunday, the Governor sent his niece, Nancy, to read the proclamation to the audience, and to send his regards to all of the Drum Corps of the State, who proudly carry the Flag of the Commonwealth. Nancy also extended his greetings to all of the youngsters involved in Drum Corps.

In the contest on Sunday, the Crusaders took first place in the General Effect Drums. The Judge in this caption commented that the Crusaders had the finest tympani section that he had heard all year. Mr Edward Dennon, one of the most qualified horn men in the country also had good things to say about the bugle, such as 'there are really groovy things happening all through the program' and 'Fine, fine show.'

In general, the comments indicated the judges' belief that the Crusaders potential for next year is high.

They will complete the regular season competition on September 6 in an Eastern Mass Circuit Contest in Beverly.

This weekend, both the Swordsmen and the Crusaders will participate in the Labor Day Parade in Gardner.

There will be a general body meeting of the Parent Boosters Association on Thursday at 8 pm, at the home of the president, Leroy Wallace at 4 Oakridge Circle in North Wilmington.

How is property value determined?

Your broker has a practical understanding of real estate valuation. He can advise you on property value.

Value of property most often means the market value. This means the price at which the property would sell in the open market. 'Value' is what the property is worth. 'Price' is the amount received for the sale of the property.

Certain factors influence value. Directional growth, for example, refers to the direction in which the city tends to grow. Properties in the direction of growth tend to increase in value. Your broker will know the city's growth pattern.

Value is affected by access of property to streets and utilities. Size, shape, and potential are also factors.

Consult your broker for more detailed information about property value.
